

Entry Form for the photography contest "Images of Research 2010"

I hereby submit the enclosed photographs to the photography contest „Bilder der Forschung 2010“ (Images of Research).

I guarantee that I am the author of the photos that I submit and that I own all rights. If an image entered depicts people, the participant has to secure their consent to both participation in the contest as well as publication of the image. If this is not the case, I guarantee to keep the organizer of the photo competition "Images of Research" or third parties to whom I grant right of use free from claims by third-party rights holders. Should such a claim exist, I bear any expenses and costs which are incurred by the organizer (or third parties to whom right of use is granted). I assure that the pictures I submitted have been taken after September 1, 2009.

I cede the following rights of use without limit on time or place to the organizer of the photography contest „Images of Research“:

- The publication of my pictures on the Internet on the websites of FOCUS Online, www.vfa.de and www.bilder-der-forschung.de as well as on social media platforms (offering downloads of 72dpi and additional 300dpi resolutions for the purpose of editorial coverages).
- Exhibition during the award ceremony and in the travelling exhibition
- Display of the photographs in a publications accompanying the exhibition (catalogue, flyer).
- PR and advertising measures in connection with the photo competition (e.g. advertisements for the exhibitions).
- Use for advertisements, posters, publications, etc. in connection with the "Images of Research" competition.
- Apart from these usage rights, all rights remain with the owner.
